Doc No: OP6.V1 (03/06)

The club will take all reasonable steps to protect personal information from misuse, loss, unauthorised access, modification or disclosure. Appropriate methods will be used to destroy and dispose of any personal information as soon as law permits, provided the information is no longer required for any purpose. Ordinarily, for information about a particular person, the information will be destroyed seven (7) years from the date of cessation of membership.
BBFC may amend this policy from time to time. Changes to this policy will be made in accordance with the BBFC Constitution and Ratification of Club Policy.
Persons need not give BBFC any personal information that may be requested in communications. However, without that information the club may not be able to process an application, fulfill that person's request or provide an appropriate level of service to that person. By making an application for membership, the applicant agrees to the terms and conditions outlined in this policy.
Access to personal information can be obtained, with the member's or guardian's written consent, within a reasonable time, usually 14 days for a straightforward request. Additional time may be required, depending on the nature of the request.
BBFC endeavour to ensure that all information held, used or disclosed is accurate, complete and up to date. A member must promptly notify the relevant nominated officer if there are any changes to personal information. A member may request at any time to correct personal information held by the club, which that member believes to be incorrect or out of date. The club will deal with the request within a reasonable time. If a member disagrees as to the accuracy of the information, that member may request that the club attach a statement to that information noting that the member considers it is not accurate, complete or up to date.
This policy change has no impact on current health and safety requirements.
